Enterprise staff | / August 22, 2009 21:03

Terry Turner and Cynthia Kellogg will give an update on the Davis sister city of Rutilio Grande, El Salvador, at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday at International House, Davis, 10 College Park.

They will explain the progress of the Davis-sponsored scholarship program for young people in Rutilio Grande and show slides of the community from a summer trip. Davis delegates took hundreds of new T-shirts with the name 'Davis' on them, compliments of A Change of Pace in Davis.

The presentation will be followed by a discussion about a Davis delegation to El Salvador in June 2010, and other news from El Salvador. The public is invited to attend.
