I'd like to thank you for volunteering at the 2009 Davis Turkey Trot.
 We had about 500 volunteers at the event this past Saturday, and each and every one of you contributed to its success.

Whether you were helping at registration, a water station, the course, post-race food, the kids area or the finish line, we would like to extend our thanks for your time.

We had approximately 4,800 runners and walkers at this year's event, along with another estimated 5,000 spectators. The event went very smoothly, and we could not have done it without your help.

THANK YOU!
